

IMMAF Equal Opportunities Policy

1 Introduction

The International Mixed Martial Arts Federation accepts that in society certain groups or individuals are denied equality on the grounds of race, gender, marital status, caring responsibilities, disability, gender re-assignment, age, social class, sexual orientation and religion/belief or any other factor irrelevant to the purpose in view.

IMMAF recognises that it has moral and social responsibilities that go beyond the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts and Regulations, and that it should support and contribute to the wider process of change through all aspects of its work and practices in order to eliminate discrimination and promote equality and diversity.

IMMAF is committed to taking positive steps to ensure that:

- all people are treated with dignity and respect, valuing the diversity of all;
- equality of opportunity and diversity is promoted;
- services are accessible, appropriate and delivered fairly to all;
- the mix of its employees, volunteers and management committees reflects, as far as possible, the broad mix of the population of its local community;
- traditionally disadvantaged sections of the community are encouraged to participate in policy decisions about, and the management of the services provided.

2 Scope

This policy applies to all IMMAF Directors, staff, volunteers, management committee/commission members, users and the general public.

3 Commitment

Equality and diversity are central to the work of the International Mixed Martial arts Federation (IMMAF).

IMMAF will treat all people with dignity and respect, valuing the diversity of all. It will promote equality of opportunity and diversity. It will eliminate all forms of discrimination on grounds of race, gender, marital status, caring responsibilities, disability, gender re-assignment, age, social class, sexual orientation, religion/ belief, irrelevant offending background or any other factor irrelevant to the purpose in view. IMMAF will tackle social exclusion, inequality, discrimination, and disadvantage.

For this policy to be successful, it is essential that everyone is committed to and involved in its delivery. IMMAF's goal is to work towards a just society free from discrimination, harassment and prejudice. IMMAF aims to embed this in all its policies, procedures, day-to-day practices and external relationships.

4 Aims

IMMAF aims to:

- Provide services that are accessible according to need;
- Promote equality of opportunity and diversity in volunteering, employment and development;
- Create effective partnerships with all parts of our community.

5 Objectives

IMMAF's objective is to realise its standards by:

- Sustaining, regularly evaluating and continually improving its services to ensure equality and diversity principles and best practice are embedded in our performance to meet the needs of individuals and groups;
- Working together with the community to provide accessible and relevant service provision that responds to service users' needs;
- Ensuring staff, volunteers and Directors are representative of the community served and the employment policies are fair and robust;
- Responding to volunteer's & employees' needs and encouraging their development to increase their contribution to effective service delivery;
- Recognising and valuing the differences and individual contribution that all people make to IMMAF;
- Challenging discrimination;
- Providing fair resource allocation;
- Being accountable.

PROCEDURES

1 Responsibility for Implementation

This policy covers the behaviour of all people employed or volunteering in IMMAF or using the services and sets out the way they can expect to be treated in turn by IMMAF. The overall responsibility for ensuring adherence to and implementation of this policy lies with the Directors, staff and the senior management team.

2 Method of Implementation

IMMAF intends to implement this policy by:

- Ensuring that it is a condition of paid employment including sub-contractors in IMMAF;

- Ensuring that Directors, Senior Management team, volunteers and users are made aware, understand, agree with, and are willing to implement, this policy. All staff and volunteers will be given a copy of this policy as part of their induction;
- Actively encouraging Directors, staff, Senior management team and volunteers to participate in anti-discriminatory training, and making time and resources available for such training;
- Monitoring the services, publicity and events provided by IMMAF, to ensure that they are accessible to all sections of the population and do not discriminate and taking active steps to ensure that participation is representative.

3 Monitoring and Reviewing

IMMAF has declared its commitment to establishing, developing, implementing and reviewing a policy of equality of opportunity. Effective record keeping and monitoring, and acting on information gathered, are essential in order to measure effectiveness and plan progress. The Senior management team will review the policy annually.
